How Students Select a College is Changing

Oshkosh Convention Center
South Breakout Rooms
2 N Main Street

Amber Evans
Associate Vice Chancellor
UW Oshkosh

There is a disruption going on in higher education across the country. Many universities similar to the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh are not thinking about making the pie bigger when it comes to student enrollment, but instead, how can they get a bigger piece of the pie when it comes to students thinking about attending college. Amber Evans, associate vice chancellor of UW Oshkosh, will share trends in college recruitment and enrollment.

Monday, August 12 @ 4 p.m.

Join the Legacy Journey for the Rotary Foundation

The Rotary Foundation, founded more than 100 years ago, helps Rotary members advance world understanding, goodwill and peace by improving health, providing quality education, improving the environment, and alleviating poverty.

The Rotary Foundation has set a goal of increasing its endowment to $2.025 billion by 2025. Our Rotary District 6270 has partnered with District 6220 to our north to join the Legacy Journey by raising $2.025 million by September 2025. There are a number of ways Rotarians can support this effort. To learn more, contact one of the Rotary representatives listed below.

Share the Rotary Experience

What do you love about your Rotary experience? Is it meeting new people, engaging in service opportunities or seeing your efforts have a global impact? Whatever the reason, why not share your passion for Rotary by inviting a guest to a meeting and allowing them to experience it too. Guests can attend their first meeting at no charge. Learn more by contacting membership chairs Kristopher Ulrich or Shelly Hurzeler.
