Paddlers for Polio take home bronze

Dry Land Practice

Oshkosh Southwest Rotary's "Paddlers for Polio" team cinched a bronze in the Community Division at the Northeast Wisconsin Dragon Boat Festival on Saturday, September 14.

Teammates met at Rev's on Thursday for a dry land practice followed by a practice on the water on Friday. The team paddled in two qualifying rounds and a semi-final round. The Final round resulted in a third-place (bronze) finish.

Ready to Race

Pulling Ahead in the Race

The Northeast Wisconsin Dragon Boat Festival is an annual extravaganza celebrating culture, camaraderie, and competition brought by the Northeast Wisconsin Chinese Association and the City of Oshkosh! Drawing inspiration from centuries-old traditions, this festival unites teams from local communities and across the region to engage in the thrilling sport of dragon boat racing. Performances were also held throughout the day celebrating Chinese culture.
